

Achieve your dream.

With another new year comes a whole new perspective on what matters most. You're considering a career in traditional trades, and 2019 could be the year you reach that goal.

This is the best time to apply to North Bennet Street School. We admit a wide array of students every year and provide you with one-on-one support, from completing your application to funding your education. Ultimately, you'll graduate with the skills and the confidence to pursue a satisfying career.

SCHOOL

Here's a handy checklist of what's needed to be considered for one of our full-time programs. Classes start in early February or early September, and it's never too early to apply.

- Sign up to receive a program brochure and important emails: nbss.edu/info
- Complete our no-cost Application Form: nbss.edu/apply
- Schedule a visit to NBSS: nbss.edu/infosession
- Request your high school or college Transcript(s).
- Ask for two Letters of Recommendation.
- Write a short Statement of Purpose.
- Provide your Work & Experience History.
- Complete other Program-Specific Requirements, as applicable.

See nbss.edu/admissions for more info.

Don't worry if you're unable to have all of these ready before beginning the Application Form. We'll keep you informed of missing items and next steps.

Your education is an investment.

Financial aid is available for qualified students, and a couple of simple forms are all you need to be considered:

- Complete the NBSS Financial Aid Application: nbss.edu/funding
- Complete your FAFSA at fafsa.gov. Our school code is 015527.
- Schedule a conversation with James Dergay, Director of Financial Aid, at jdergay@nbss.edu or 617-227-0155 x115.

We are here to help make your dreams of going to NBSS a reality.
